

December 21, 2020

Policy on Collaboration with NGOs

Subject: Collaboration with NGOs for the Welfare of Local Community

Preamble: DIT University believes in inclusive development with the responsibility of contributing to Local Community in its welfare thereby sharing its concern and care for the society in and around its campus at village of Makkawala, Dehradun.

Introduction: In this regards DIT University will establish connections with various Non-Governmental Organisation with the above broad objectives in the area of Social development, Rural development and Educating the Adults in the villages nearby and extending basic medical advices etc.

In addition to the above, DIT University will enter into agreements with various Non-Governmental Organisations for the upliftment of the under privileged students, students with no parental income, students from orphanage who have no means to pay for Higher Education.

Conclusion: DIT University towards its social responsibility as per the forgoing will assist in:

1. Admission of students with under privileged background without any fee, thereby extending full financial support.
2. Work among villages on various collaborative projects on Health, Women Health & Child Health.
3. The students of DIT University will visit nearby villages for adult education, health related issues related to ageing etc.

DIT University thereby takes responsibility for Inclusive Development of Local Community through above initiatives.

Kuhag

Registrar